Administrative Commission for the St. Johns Presbyterian Church

February 4, 2019

The Administrative Commission for the St. Johns Presbyterian Church reports that after the last presbytery meeting it held a meeting with representatives of the church to discuss next steps. There was also a meeting with the pastor. The AC expects to receive additional written information from the church in the near future. It will continue to follow the steps in the presbytery policy relating to churches requesting dismissal from the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).
