"Come Rest Awhile" Clergy, CRE, & Educators Retreat Frequently Asked Questions

Can I bring my spouse?

If your spouse is not clergy and you are paying for a single room, your spouse may stay with you at no extra charge. Your spouse will also have breakfast included. If your spouse would like to eat meals with the group, please add an extra $45 in your payment. At this time, we do not have any special activities for your spouse, but they are free to come and enjoy the beach and worship with us and eat with us.

What is the cost for clergy couples?

The cost is $345 per clergy couple.

Who is Jon Brown?

Jon is a graduate of Union Presbyterian seminary and a PCUSA pastor of Old Bergen Church, an historic and multicultural congregation located in Jersey City, NJ.

Are there any hidden fees?

No. The El Caribe has no resort fees, and they are waiving all parking fees for the conference.

What should I bring?

Bring yourself, your Bible, and sunblock! The hotel has a pool right by the ocean. It may be a bit cool in October.

What is the schedule?

We will start with dinner at 6:00 p.m. on Monday but you are welcome to come early and enjoy the beach. We will have mixers, our first session with our speaker, and evening vespers.

Tuesday, a light continental breakfast is available at the hotel if you choose. We will gather for morning prayers and singing, followed by our morning session with the speaker.

Tuesday afternoon is free time! Enjoy the beach. Explore Daytona. Rest awhile. We are working on some optional activities for you as well which we will present when planning is complete.

Wednesday morning a light continental breakfast is available at the hotel if you wish. We will gather for our final session with the speaker, followed by communion worship service. We will be on our way rejoicing by noon.
